COUNCIL COMMUNICATIONS:

Mayor Pro Tem Kurtz stated that sometimes it takes a holiday season to remind everyone that “Together We Are Anaheim.” She stated that Anaheim is its residents, workers, businesses, and City staff. She thanked Community Services staff, residents, businesses, and workers in the resort area because over 500 kids in District 4 received a special surprise in the weeks leading to Christmas. With generous contributions from 15 hotels and restaurants in the resort area, support from Anaheim Transportation Network (ATN), and assistance from the Anaheim Community Foundation, toys were delivered to five different neighborhoods in District 4. She highlighted and shared photographs of toys being delivered to Guinida Lane, Clifton Avenue, Dakota Street, Roberts Street, and Provential Drive. Mayor Pro Tem Kurtz thanked The Anaheim Majestic Garden Hotel, Castle Inn & Suites, The Anaheim Hotel, Grand Legacy At The Park, Courtyard by Marriott, Best Western Plus Stovall’s Inn, Hyatt House, Peacock Suites, The Desert Palms Hotel and Suites, The Pizza Press, Tropicana Inn and Suites, Alpine Inn, The Westin Anaheim Resort, Cambria Hotel and Suites Anaheim Resort, Del Sol Inn, and their employees for being a part of the community. She also thanked the Anaheim Community Foundation team, the Target team at Lincoln Avenue and State College Boulevard, and the ATN team and their driver Joey who changed his work schedule so he could participate at every toy distribution. ATN decorated their bus, and the kids were able to enter the bus and select any toy they wanted. Together, residents, businesses, organizations, labor, and City staff can make a difference. She stated, “Somos Anaheim, We Are Anaheim.”

Council Member Rubalcava wished everyone a Happy New Year and thanked everyone who provided comments. She stated that she represents District 3, a diverse district that requires her and her staff to be in the community frequently to understand the needs of residents. Council Member Rubalcava highlighted and shared photographs of events she participated in. She, along with Council Member Faessel attended a “Posada” event on Bush Street. Members from Public Utilities who are also veterans also attended the event. Council Member Rubalcava thanked Jimmy who helped with this event. She recognized community leader Sophia Romero who organized the event, as well as City staff, and life-long residents and business owners Shawn and Silvia Albayati. She shared that David from Vons Grocery Store was Santa Claus at the event. She recognized Colony Wine Merchant and congratulated the business owners and District 3 residents Sonya, Mike, and family for celebrating nine years of business in Anaheim. The Colony Wine Merchant has served as a place for so many members of the community to gather and create joyful memories. The business survived during the pandemic by delivering wine and charcuterie boards. District 3 hosted a Cops and Cocoa event at Starbucks (Lincoln Avenue and Anaheim Boulevard). She recognized the members of the community that engaged with the Community Police Team and highlighted how government and businesses collaborate to reach out to the community. There were 50 community members in attendance including Pastor Kyle Bonenberger from City Church. On December 22nd, Mondragon Family Market, a business that has been in the community for 45 years, hosted a toy giveaway. She thanked Anaheim Fire and Rescue for donating 250 toys and the Police Association for donating 75 toys. Members of the Police and Fire Departments attended and welcomed families. On Christmas Eve, K & A Catering located on Center Street Promenade hosted their 15th annual community holiday brunch. She thanked City staff because they played a significant role in making sure the event went off without a hitch. The family had been experiencing health issues and had not planned on hosting the event this year. However, in collaboration with the District 3 Office, the Police Department, and the Fire and Rescue Department, K&A was able to host the event. Approximately 1,000 people attended the event and received breakfast and had an opportunity to engage with the Police Mounted Unit, SWAT Team, Anaheim Beautiful, and Anaheim Fire and Rescue. She thanked Anaheim Public Utilities General Manager, Dukku Lee for attending on Christmas Eve with his family to host a booth and engage with members of the community. On January 6th, she celebrated and hosted 250 individuals for Día de los Reyes Magos, which is also known as Three Kings Day. The day is celebrated as the day the three wise men first saw baby Jesus and brought him gifts. January 6th also closes Christmas festivities. Council Member Rubalcava thanked the Community Services team who helped secure the venue, the Anaheim Police Association for donating toys, Anaheim Fire and Rescue, Northgate Market for the Rosca bread donation, K&A Catering for donating toys, Congressman Lou Correa's Office, Anaheim Public Utilities for providing water, Orange County Labor Federation for donating bread, Yesenia Rojas, Panaderia La Pequeña for donating bread, District 3 Council Aides, and all the volunteers from Anaheim High School. Council Member Rubalcava attended the Anaheim High School ribbon-cutting ceremony for their new track and field. The new field was developed using Measure A funds. There was a great show of support with attendees including students, parents, former coaches, administrators, and alumni including Reuben Droughns who graduated in 1996. He is a CIF wrestling champion, former NFL player, and philanthropist. Council Member Rubalcava recognized former Anaheim Union High School District Board of Trustees Member Al Jabbar and current Board of Trustees Member Jessica Guererro who made sure the project was completed for the benefit of the students.

Council Member Faessel shared that he and his wife Susan are longtime supporters of the Orange County Justice Center, formerly Anaheim Family Justice Center. This last Christmas Season, the Orange County Justice Center adopted over 120 families. His wife Susan was instrumental in handing out gift packages all day long. He attended the Grinchmas Celebration at the Sunkist Branch Library and there were over 300 participants. On December 22nd, Yesenia Rojas hosted a Posada event in the La Palma-Anna neighborhood. Anaheim resident Mark Richard Daniels was Santa Claus. He thanked Fire Chief Pat Russell for attending the event. Council Member Faessel stated that he was able to visit with his son and grandkids during the Christmas and New Year's holidays. He stated that his New Year's resolution is to see grandkids more often.

Council member Diaz wished everyone a Happy New Year. He stated that with every year there are new challenges and new hopes but nothing that the City can't handle. He expressed condolences to Council Member Leon for the passing of his grandmother and stated that it is difficult to lose family members in another country.
