▪ ORDER OF BUSINESS: Public sessions of all regular meetings of the City Council/Successor Agency to the Redevelopment Agency/Housing Authority/Public Financing Authority/Housing and Public Improvements Authority begin at 5:00 P.M. Public hearings begin at 5:30 P.M. unless otherwise noted. Closed sessions begin at 3:00 P.M. or such other time as noted. Closed sessions may be preceded by one or more public workshops. If a workshop is scheduled, the subject and time of the workshop will appear on the agenda. Not all of the above agencies may be meeting on any given date. The agenda will specify which agencies are meeting. All meetings are in the Anaheim City Hall, Council Chamber, 200 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim, CA 92805 or such other location as noted. Pursuant to Government Code Section 54954.2(a)(2), no action or discussion by the City Council shall be undertaken on any item not appearing on the posted agenda, except to briefly provide information, ask for clarification, provide direction to staff, or schedule a matter for a future meeting.

▪ REPORTS: All agenda items and reports are available for review in the City Clerk's Office and www.anaheim.net/councilagendas. Any writings or documents provided to a majority of the City Council regarding any item on this agenda (other than writings legally exempt from public disclosure) are available at the Office of the City Clerk, located at 200 S. Anaheim Blvd., 2nd Floor, Anaheim, CA 92805 and by contacting the office by phone, 714-765-5166, or email to cityclerk@anaheim.net.

▪ PUBLIC COMMENTS: There are two Public Comment periods with speakers having one opportunity to address the City Council, except for scheduled public hearing items. Public comments are limited to three (3) minutes per speaker, unless a different time limit is announced. The City uses speaker cards that must be submitted to the City Clerk in order to address the City Council. Prior to the business portion of the agenda, the City Council and all other related agencies meeting on such date will convene in joint session for the first Public Comment period where speakers will be permitted to speak on specific agenda item(s). This first Public Comment period is limited to 90 minutes or until all agenda item speakers have been heard, whichever is later. Any remaining time shall be provided to non-agenda item speakers until the 90 minute time limitation is exhausted. The second Public Comment period will be opened by the Mayor if any non-agenda item speakers were not called during the first Public Comment period. For public hearings, the Mayor or Chairperson will separately call for testimony at the time of each public hearing. Testimony during public hearings is subject to the following time limits: Project applicant or issue initiator: twenty minutes for initial presentation and ten minutes for rebuttal; Residents within the noticed area of the subject property: ten minutes; All other members of the public: three minutes. Public hearings regarding legislative matters: three minutes. The Mayor or Chairperson may limit the length of comments during public hearings due to the number of persons wishing to speak or if comments become repetitious or irrelevant. Speakers shall refrain from profane language and other disruptive remarks or behavior which disrupts or disturbs the meeting, or risk being removed (AMC 1.12.017). Additionally, members of the public may correspond with the City Council and all other related agencies, on any agenda items or matters within the jurisdiction of such governing bodies, by submitting comments electronically for City Council consideration by sending them to publiccomment@anaheim.net. To ensure distribution to the City Council prior to consideration of the agenda, please submit comments at least 2 hours prior to the scheduled start time of the meeting. Those comments, as well as any comments received after that time, will be distributed to the City Council, posted on the City's website, and will be made part of the official public record of the meeting. Current and archived public comments are available at www.anaheim.net/publiccomment. Contact the City Clerk's Office at 714-765-5166 or cityclerk@anaheim.net with any questions.

▪ ADDITIONS/DELETIONS: Items of business may be added to the agenda upon a motion adopted by a minimum 2/3 vote finding that there is a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the City or Agency subsequent to the agenda being posted. Items may be deleted from the agenda upon request of staff or upon action of the Council or Agency.

▪ CONSENT CALENDAR: Consent Calendar items will be acted on by one roll call vote unless a member(s) requests an item(s) be discussed and/or removed from the Consent Calendar for separate action.

▪ SERVICIOS DE TRADUCCION (TRANSLATION SERVICES: SEE LAST PAGE OF AGENDA FOR DESCRIPTION IN ENGLISH): La ciudad provee servicios de interpretación al español en las juntas del Consejo. La interpretación simultánea al español se ofrece por medio del uso de audífonos y la interpretación consecutiva (español a inglés) también está disponible para cualquiera que desee dirigirse al Ayuntamiento, declarando su petición en el podio. No tiene que usar los servicios de interpretación de la Ciudad; las personas pueden proveer su propio intérprete, si lo desean. Debido a que existen muchos dialectos y regionalismos, la Ciudad no puede garantizar que los intérpretes puedan traducir a un dialecto o regionalismo en particular y rehúsa cualquier responsabilidad que surja de tales servicios. Para servicios de interpretación en otros idiomas, comuníquese con la oficina de la Ciudad (City Clerk), cuando menos 48 horas antes de la junta programada.

COUNCIL COMMUNICATIONS:

Mayor Aitken reported that she attended the U.S. Conference of Mayors in Long Beach. She shared that she was asked to chair the Economic Mobility Workshop and the TAPES (Tourism, Arts, Parks, Entertainment and Sports) Committee. She added that she attended the swearing-in ceremony of San Diego Mayor Todd Gloria, as the new President of the U.S. Conference of Mayors. Mayor Aitken announced the passing of Anaheim's 42nd Mayor, Fred Hunter. She shared that he recently passed away at the age of 84. She noted that he was a former Anaheim Police Officer, who served as Mayor from 1989 to 1992, during the time that the City built the Honda Center. She added that his service to the City included time as an undercover officer with the Anaheim Police and as a partner to Mayor Aitken's uncle. She expressed her condolences to his family.

Council Member Meeks announced that she would also request that the meeting be adjourned in memory of Fred Hunter. She shared that he attended high school with her parents and a personal connection to him. She noted that he was instrumental in the development of the Honda Center and his vision for the City. She reported the effort to secure the arena for Anaheim during a competitive period when Orange County could only support one. She added that following a serious diagnosis earlier in the year, she provided a tour of OCVIBE to former Mayor Hunter, former City Manager Jim Ruth, former Department Head Greg Smith, and Construction Administrator Chuck Smith. She remembered him as a dedicated public servant whose leadership greatly contributed to Anaheim.

Council Member Maahs highlighted OC Animal Care's Dogs Day Out Program. She shared that the program is running and individuals who are interested can take a dog out for a few hours. She noted that the program benefits the animal by providing enrichment and increased visibility for adoption opportunities. She added that the program may be beneficial to older adults and seniors who want to spend time with the animals without the responsibility of full-time care. She encouraged the public to visit the OC Animal Care website for more information and to sign up. Council Member Maahs shared that she hosted her office's monthly park cleanup at Aloe Greens Park. She noted that many community members joined, including a father and daughter from Anaheim Hills, and parkgoers who observed the cleanup. She reported that eight bags of trash were collected. She announced that the next cleanup would be on June 27th at Edison Park, open to all members of the public, with supplies provided. She reminded attendees to wear closed-toe shoes. Council Member Maahs announced that she and Council Member Kurtz would be co-hosting a Senior Care 101 presentation at Anaheim Methodist Church on Friday, June 19th. She shared that representatives from the North Orange County Senior Collaborative, an attorney, and a fiduciary would be available to answer questions. She added that City departments would be available to provide information on different City services. Council Member Maahs reported that she was partnering with the Community Health Initiative of Orange County (CHIOC). She explained that CHIOC connects families to quality, affordable health care and social services. She shared that there are several enrollment sites for CalOptima and CalFresh throughout the City. She highlighted the Miraloma Family Resource Center in District 5 and Ponderosa Family Resource Center. She noted that there are new eligibility requirements, as a result of H.R. 1, which dramatically impact coverage for several individuals receiving benefits. She emphasized the importance of education on the information to ensure individuals do not lose their benefits. She shared that there would be sessions in English and Spanish, and virtually.

Council Member Rubalcava recognized Leonardo Salazar, an eight-time amateur Muay Thai champion and District 3 resident who has earned multiple titles through the International Kickboxing Federation. She shared that he was born and raised in Anaheim and has achieved significant success while serving as a positive role model for youth interested in martial arts. She added that she would be requesting a formal recognition for Mr. Salazar. She also acknowledged his wife, who reached out to her and recognized her support of his accomplishments. Council Member Rubalcava recognized Joe Pak, an advocate for the veterans community, particularly Korean War veterans. She shared that he championed the Korean War memorial in the City of Fullerton. She added that he currently works for Assemblywoman Sharon Quirk-Silva, who represents the City of Anaheim. Council Member Rubalcava reported business growth in District 3. She noted that 90% of the businesses in Anaheim are small businesses. She highlighted three small businesses opening on Center Street in District 3, including Deco Day, Pulse Lagree, and additional restaurants. She highlighted the efforts by the Chamber of Commerce and the Economic Development Department to fill vacant storefronts. Council Member Rubalcava recognized the VFW and the American Legion for hosting a Memorial Day event at Anaheim Cemetery to remember the many veterans who fought for the country. She recognized the entire Council for attending to recognize and remember those who lost their lives for freedom. She highlighted former City of Anaheim employees and School Board Member Jessica Guerrero, who have been instrumental in the event. Council Member Rubalcava thanked the Community Services Department and the Communications team for hosting the raising of the Pride flag. She noted that June is Pride Month and emphasized the City's commitment to fostering an inclusive community where all residents, regardless of sexual orientation or immigration status, feel welcome, safe and secure. Council Member Rubalcava recognized City Clerk Theresa Bass and Assistant City Clerk Susana Barrios for answering resident questions about voting on Election Night to ensure residents have somewhere to call to vote before 8 p.m. She recognized Magnolia Science Academy charter school. She noted that she has received requests from residents to support the expansion of the services provided. She reported that they started with T-K through sixth grade and have expanded to serve students from seventh to eighth grade. She thanked the Planning Department for working with the school to allow them to expand and provide additional access to Anaheim families. Council Member Rubalcava announced the District 3 Open House would be held on Wednesday, June 10th, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Downtown Anaheim Community Center. She shared that each City department would be present and available to answer any questions or concerns. She added that refreshments would be provided, and attendees could enter to win Angels tickets. Council Member Rubalcava requested to adjourn the meeting in memory of Alan Graner, a District 3 resident. She shared that he resided with his wife and was an engaged, positive member of the community.

Council Member Balius thanked the Public Works Department for their progress on traffic signal updates. He highlighted the intersection located at Western Avenue and Ball Road, which was completed with four-way protected left-turn signals. He shared that additional improvements at Western Avenue and Orange Avenue have been completed, with work underway at Orange Avenue and Dale Avenue. Council Member Balius thanked the Public Utilities Department and General Manager Dukku Lee for power line removal along Beach Boulevard. He shared that he attended the Anaheim Fire Department graduation and welcomed the 21 recruits. He thanked them for choosing Anaheim and for a rewarding career. He added that he attended the Fire Department's Badge Pinning Ceremony, where 20 firefighters were promoted. Council Member Balius thanked the Angels organization for hosting 250 youth from Little League Baseball for practice. He noted that some Angels players were in attendance. Council Member Balius announced that the Orange County Resiliency Fund from United Way is available to those affected by the Garden Grove incident. He explained that the public can call 2-1-1, option seven, for assistance. He added that individuals who would like to donate to the fund can call the 2-1-1 line.

Mayor Pro Tem Leon expressed gratitude to City staff, first responders, and volunteers who assisted during the recent emergency response in Garden Grove. He thanked residents who attended the District 2 Open House. He noted that the Open House is an opportunity for direct conversations about issues in the neighborhood, priorities, and feedback. He thanked City staff who attended to answer residents' questions. Mayor Pro Tem Leon wished Angie Beccia a happy 100th birthday. He shared that her story is deeply rooted in Anaheim's history after moving to Anaheim over six decades ago. He added that she was a seamstress at Knott's Berry Farm for 25 years and became a cherished member of her church community. He noted that he would be requesting a recognition for Ms. Beccia. Mayor Pro Tem Leon thanked Orange County Clerk Recorder Hugh Nguyen and his team for partnering with his office to host a passport services event at Savanna High School. He shared that more than 70 passports and applications were processed. He noted the importance of bringing government services directly to neighborhoods for increased accessibility. Mayor Pro Tem Leon reported that following the tragic shooting in San Diego, he and Chief Cid met with leaders from District 2 local mosques. He thanked Chief Cid for his willingness to join, listen, engage, and reaffirm that every person in the City deserves to feel safe in the community. He emphasized the importance of building relationships across cultures, faiths, and neighborhoods, and acknowledged the Police Department's ongoing outreach and follow-up efforts. He expressed gratitude for the continued partnership between the City and the community. Mayor Pro Tem Leon announced his attendance at the St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church Greek Festival. He shared that for decades, the festival has brought families together while celebrating traditions that enrich the cultural fabric of the City. He thanked all of the organizers who continue the tradition each year. Mayor Pro Tem Leon recognized the Brown Descents Car Club for their dedication to the community and for hosting an event that raised thousands of dollars in scholarship money for kids in the neighborhood. He shared that they continue to create opportunities for young people in the community and make a meaningful difference. Mayor Pro Tem Leon requested to adjourn the meeting in memory of Trần Augustino Cầu. He shared that his life was defined by perseverance, sacrifice, and service. He stated that following the fall of Saigon, Mr. Cầu endured imprisonment in a re-education camp before making the courageous journey to freedom with his family. He shared that he arrived seeking opportunity and safety, to build a new life, not only for himself and for countless relatives and future generations. He announced that he became a respected leader with the Vietnamese community and helped preserve the stories of those who endured war and displacement. He added that he remained active in Black April commemorations and used his voice to advocate for freedom and human dignity. He shared that his work in civic affairs and Vietnamese language media helped strengthen connections across generations and ensured important stories would never be forgotten. He extended his gratitude to the nurses, doctors, and health professionals at Anaheim Health Care Center and West Anaheim Medical Center who cared for him during his final years and for all their work to the community. He expressed his condolences to his daughter Tammy, his loved ones, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Council Member Kurtz announced that the District 4 Open House would be held on Thursday, June 11th, at Betsy Ross Park. She shared that it is the first time the City is hosting the meeting in a park and invited the public to attend. She noted that all City departments would be present to answer questions. Council Member Kurtz reported that on Saturday, June 13th, there would be a neighborhood cleanup in at Valencia on the north, Vermont on the south, and to the east of West Anaheim Boulevard. She noted that the area will have several large bins available for large trash items. She added that the cleanup will end with a gathering at the Olive Elementary School parking lot, where several City departments would be present to discuss issues in the neighborhood. She shared that hot dogs would be provided by the Orange County Employees' Association. Council Member Kurtz repeated Council Member Maahs' announcement regarding a senior meeting being held at the United Methodist Church on June 19th. She shared that the event would begin at 9:30 A.M.

CITY MANAGER'S UPDATE:

Interim City Manager Greg Garcia provided an update on the ongoing Stadium assessment. He reported that there have been no new developments or changes, and that the final assessment would be completed later in the year. Interim City Manager Garcia congratulated an Anaheim family of four who became homeowners through the City's new First-Time Homebuyer Down Payment Assistance Program. He shared that the family has lived in District 4 for more than 20 years and were able to purchase a home in the neighborhood, allowing them to stay connected to their community. He recognized staff, including Staff Analyst Monica Pinto, who played a key role in coordinating the effort and making the City's first Local Housing Trust Fund homeownership opportunity. He added that the first closing is the first of many opportunities to help Anaheim families achieve homeownership. He reported that additional information is available on the City's website. Interim City Manager Garcia announced that for those traveling to SoFi for the FIFA World Cup, ARTIC was available to provide direct affordable bus rides to the stadium. He reported that additional information is available on OCTA's website. He added that ARTIC would be hosting a free watch party on July 19th, co-hosted by OCVIBE. He noted that it is a family-friendly event that would bring hundreds of fans to watch the final game on a 20-foot screen TV, while enjoying live DJs, photo opportunities, food and beverage vendors, and other fan experiences. He stated that the event is free with registration through OCVIBE. Interim City Manager Garcia highlighted the City's Employee Appreciation Picnic and expressed gratitude to Anaheim employees for their dedication and service to the community.

Mayor Aitken thanked the Anaheim Ducks for putting information together regarding the Watch Party for residents first. She encouraged residents to register.

All agenda items and reports are available for review in the City Clerk's Office and www.anaheim.net/councilagendas, and the Central Library. Any writings or documents provided to a majority of the City Council regarding any item on this agenda (other than writings legally exempt from public disclosure) will be available at the Office of the City Clerk, located at 200 S. Anaheim Blvd., 2nd Floor, Anaheim, CA 92805 during regular business hours and by contacting the office by phone, 714-765-5166, or email to cityclerk@anaheim.net.

If requested, the agenda and backup materials will be made available in appropriate alternative formats to persons with a disability, as required by Section 202 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12132), and the federal rules and regulations adopted in implementation thereof.

Any person who requires a disability-related modification or accommodation, including auxiliary aids or services, in order to participate in the public meeting may request such reasonable modification, accommodation, aid, or service by contacting the City Clerk's Office either in person at 200 South Anaheim Boulevard, Anaheim, California, by telephone at (714) 765-5166, or via email to cityclerk@anaheim.net, no later than 72 hours prior to the scheduled meeting.

TRANSLATION SERVICES: Spanish interpreting services are provided at City Council meetings. Simultaneous Spanish interpretation is provided through the use of headsets and consecutive interpretation (Spanish-to-English) is also available to anyone addressing the Council by stating your request at the podium. The use of city provided interpreters is not required and persons are welcome to use their own interpreter. Because many dialects and regionalisms exist, the City cannot guarantee that interpreters will be able to interpret into a particular dialect or regionalism, and disclaims any liability alleged to arise from such services. For translation services in other languages, contact the City Clerk's office no later than 48 hours prior to the scheduled meeting.
